Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
Dear Applicant,

We are pleased to report that your organization has been determined to be a section 501(c)(3) organization by the Internal Revenue Service. As such, your organization is eligible for a charitable deduction for gifts made to you. The charitable deduction is subject to the limitations set forth in the税法. For a detailed explanation of the charitable deduction rules, please refer to the Internal Revenue Code, section 170(c).

If you have any questions regarding the charitable deduction, your organization's tax-exempt status, or any other tax-related matters, please contact the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-TAX-FORM.

Sincerely,
